

Highlighted SF State Campus Resources:

Counseling & Psychological Services Center (CPSC)

Student Services Building, Room 208 (415) 338-2208 <http://psyservs.sfsu.edu/>

- Consultation with a Counselor: Any student, parent, faculty, or staff member may call and speak with a counselor about anyone on campus that they are concerned about. Faculty and staff may also speak with a counselor about a personal issue (call CPSC for more information).
- Emergency appointments: Several daily slots are available for emergency situations. Examples of what may constitute an emergency : Thoughts of harm to self or others, recent assault, recent loss of a loved one
- Please call CPSC to alert the Center of a student that you are concerned about (who may be in crisis) prior to walking or sending the student over. Ask to speak with a counselor. Staff will then inform you what emergency appointments are available.
- To make regular appointments: The individual may call or walk into CPSC to set up an appointment.
- Confidential Services: Our services are confidential with some exceptions such as harm to self or others, child/elder/disabled adult abuse, or if someone is gravely disabled (unable to meet their basic needs).

SF Campus Police: (415) 338-2222 (911 in emergency)

Student Health Services: (415) 338-1251

Disability Programs & Resource Center: (415) 338-2472

The SAFE Place (Sexual Abuse Free Environment): (415) 338-2208

RED Folder: Assisting Students in Distress

<http://www.calstate.edu/red-folder/?campusSel=SanFrancisco>

Center for Teaching and Faculty Development (CTFD): (415) 338-6815

Office of Student Conduct: (415) 338-2032

Standards of Student Conduct <http://conduct.sfsu.edu/standards>

Title IX: Promoting Gender Equity & Preventing Sexual Harassment/Sexual Violence: (415) 338-2032

Peggy H. Smith Counseling Clinic (staffed by supervised graduate students): (415) 338-1024

SF State Psychology Training Clinic (staffed by supervised graduate students): (415) 338-2856

Employee Assistance Program (EAP): (for faculty and staff) 1-800-367-7474

SF Suicide Prevention: hotline number (415) 781-0500

Highlighted SF State Campus Resources:

Counseling & Psychological Services Center (CPSC)

Student Services Building, Room 208 (415) 338-2208 <http://psyservs.sfsu.edu/>

- Consultation with a Counselor: Any student, parent, faculty, or staff member may call and speak with a counselor about anyone on campus that they are concerned about. Faculty and staff may also speak with a counselor about a personal issue (call CPSC for more information).
- Emergency appointments: Several daily slots are available for emergency situations. Examples of what may constitute an emergency : Thoughts of harm to self or others, recent assault, recent loss of a loved one
- Please call CPSC to alert the Center of a student that you are concerned about (who may be in crisis) prior to walking or sending the student over. Ask to speak with a counselor. Staff will then inform you what emergency appointments are available.
- To make regular appointments: The individual may call or walk into CPSC to set up an appointment.
- Confidential Services: Our services are confidential with some exceptions such as harm to self or others, child/elder/disabled adult abuse, or if someone is gravely disabled (unable to meet their basic needs).

SF Campus Police: (415) 338-2222 (911 in emergency)

Student Health Services: (415) 338-1251

Disability Programs & Resource Center: (415) 338-2472

The SAFE Place (Sexual Abuse Free Environment): (415) 338-2208

RED Folder: Assisting Students in Distress

<http://www.calstate.edu/red-folder/?campusSel=SanFrancisco>

Center for Teaching and Faculty Development (CTFD): (415) 338-6815

Office of Student Conduct: (415) 338-2032

Standards of Student Conduct <http://conduct.sfsu.edu/standards>

Title IX: Promoting Gender Equity & Preventing Sexual Harassment/Sexual Violence: (415) 338-2032

Peggy H. Smith Counseling Clinic (staffed by supervised graduate students): (415) 338-1024

SF State Psychology Training Clinic (staffed by supervised graduate students): (415) 338-2856

Employee Assistance Program (EAP): (for faculty and staff) 1-800-367-7474

SF Suicide Prevention: hotline number (415) 781-0500